Golden Elixir Productions and Red Rock Promotions Create Alliance

Filmmaker/Author Barclay Powers' new film, "The Lost Secret of Immortality", received the Best Spiritual Documentary Award at the Spring 2011 New York International Film Festival. Powers' company, Golden Elixir Productions LLC, partnered with Red Rock Promotions to expose the film, books, and music to one of the largest spiritual communities – Sedona Arizona.

The film and book explores the evolution of consciousness and the ultimate potential of humanity. The mysteries of sexual yoga, the Philosopher's Stone, the Body of Light and their connection to spiritual awakening are unveiled.

With the December 2012 ending date of ancient calendars and the possible implications drawing near, Barclay wants the information on the nature of enlightenment to reach as many people as possible. "The physical body has the potential to transform into a body of light, as demonstrated by Tibetan monks", Powers stated, "and so can you and I."

Red Rock Promotions will sponsor events, schedule movie screenings, sell books, DVDs, CDs, schedule book signings, speaker engagements, interviews, and engage Powers for conference presentations. "Red Rock Promotions is a great fit for Barclay's material as we have many contacts in the global spiritual community and have been promoting film, music, and media for nearly a decade", said Red Rock Promotions owner Morgan Richmond.
